

Leaving an abusive partner can be difficult, and often dangerous.

yet

32%

of Australians believe that a female victim who doesn't leave an abusive partner is partly responsible for the abuse continuing.

We need to focus on the abusive behaviour, not women's choices.